

References:

- United States Environmental Protection Agency Publication, Turning the Tide on Trash—A Learning Guide on Marine Debris
<http://www.epa.gov/cgi-bin/claritgw>
- Marine Debris—Canada's Marine Debris News
<http://www.ec.gc.ca/marine/ENG/educ.htm>
- Adopt A Beach California – The Problem with Marine Debris
<http://ceres.ca.gov/coastalcomm/web/ccd/debris.html>
- Tampa Bay Beach Buddies Program, University of South Florida, Department of Marine Science <http://www.marine.usf.edu/beachbuddies>
- A Guide to Cleaning up Beach Debris in Alaska
Sea Grant Education Publication No. 3, May 1989

Resources:

Center for Marine Conservation

1725 DeSales Street NW
Washington, DC 20036
(800) CMC-BEACH
www.cmc-ocean.org

Greenpeace USA, Inc.

1436 U Street NW
Washington, DC 20009
(202) 462-1177

Institute for Environmental Education

32000 Chagrin Boulevard
Cleveland, OH 44124
(216) 464-1775

Marine Entanglement Network

c/o Defenders of Wildlife
1244 – 19th Street NW
Washington, DC 20036
(202) 659-9510

Marine Mammal Commission

1825 Connecticut Ave. NW
Room 512
Washington, DC 20009
(202) 606-5504

U.S. Coast Guard

Boating, Public &
Consumer Affairs
2100 2nd Street SW
Washington, DC 20250
(202) 267-2229

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Public Information Center
PM-211B
401 M Street SW
Washington, DC 20460

NOAA/National Marine Fisheries Service

Marine Entanglement
Research Program
7600 Sand Point Way NE
Seattle, WA 98115
(206) 526-4009

Washington State Department of Ecology

Waste Reduction,
Recycling, and Litter
Control Program
P.O. Box 47600
Olympia, WA 98504
(206) 459-6000