I. PURPOSE AND INTENT

Building and strengthening a premier university is dependent on maintaining and sustaining a community of highly qualified scholars; tenure and promotion of faculty members helps to fulfill this goal.

II. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The University of South Florida (USF) endorses a Policy on tenure and promotion of highly qualified faculty members in accordance with USF Regulations 10.105 and 10.106 Regulations, Policies, and guidelines on tenure and promotion will be reviewed at least every five years in accordance with the principles of shared governance and academic freedom and the rights and responsibilities of faculty members and administrators (see USF Policy 10-050).

*Current Responsible Office: Academic Affairs

*Refer to the appropriate Responsible Office website for a current name of the Vice President or other Responsible Officer.

*This Policy has been updated to reflect a consolidated USF in title only. As additional substantive or technical amendments are identified to conform to new processes as needed, those additional amendments will be made and posted. During the transition period, questions regarding how the Policy is to be applied may be submitted to the noted Responsible Office.
